In a large resealable plastic bag, combine all ingredients. Seal the bag and shake well. Marinate in the fridge for 30 minutes. Remove chicken from the marinade, discard the rest. Grill or broil chicken, turning once, 6 minutes per side or until thoroughly cooked.

The marinade times are crucial in bringing out the distinct flavors in your fish, chicken or meat recipes. So ideally any kind of fish/seafood must be marinated for 15 minutes to 1 hour, chicken/turkey/any other bird meat between 1.2 to 3 hours while all kinds of red meat must be kept aside overnight in the marinades sauce inside the refrigerator.
