

It cannot be Christmas at our house without these cookies! These were nice and soft, almost chewy and very easy to make. I think Hershey kisses pressed into the center would also be delightful.

Almond Cookies

- 1 cup rice flour
- ½ cup light brown sugar, packed
- 2 cups finely ground blanched almonds
- 6 tbs. soft butter
- 1 tbs. ice water
- 30 almonds

Sift the rice flour and brown sugar into a bowl. Mix in the almonds, and then work in butter with the hand. Stir in the ice water. Break off tablespoon-size pieces of dough and shape into balls. Arrange on a greased cookie sheet, leaving at least 1 inch between each. Flatten slightly and place an almond in the center of each. Bake 12 minutes, or until delicately browned.

Use either margarine or butter interchangeably unless a recipe specifically calls for one or the other. Butter and margarine give cookies their flavor and crisp outside texture. When a recipe calls for solid shortening, it will usually produce a cookie with a crunchy texture.
