

A savory bread to serve with a hearty soup or stew. Vary herbs to your taste. Cook time depends on your machine. The kneading can be done in the machine, and then the rise and shape cycles done by hand, to make rolls.

Onion Herb Baked Bread

- 1 envelope of onion soup mix
- 1 medium clove garlic, finely chopped
- 1 tsp. basil leaves
- 1 tsp. oregano
- 1/8 tsp. pepper
- 1/2 cup butter, softened
- 1 loaf Italian or French bread (about 16 inches long), halved lengthwise

Preheat oven to 375 degrees.

In a small bowl, thoroughly blend all ingredients except bread; generously spread on bread halves. On baking sheet, arrange bread, cut side up, and bake 15 minutes or until golden. Serve warm.

Store any remaining spread, covered, in fridge for later use.

There are few aromas more delightful than the smell of home baked bread. It is an activity that has diminished in the hectic pace of modern life, and is a very satisfying and rewarding experience. But, it does take some skill.
