In a large recloseable plastic bag, combine the first 6 ingredients; add the steak. Seal the bag and turn to coat, put in fridge over night. Drain and discard marinade. On 12 skewers, put meat then vegetables, one at a time. Grill, uncovered, over medium heat for 12 to 14 minutes until meat is done. Serve with rice.

If you're using wooden skewers, make sure you soak them in water for a good half hour before putting them on the grill. If left dry, they'll burn up and fall apart.
